NON-FINAL REJECTION

Continued Examination Under 37 CFR 1.114

1. A request for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, including the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e), was filed in this application after final rejection. Since this application is eligible for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, and the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e) has been timely paid, the finality of the previous Office action has been withdrawn pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114. Applicant's submission filed on 22 November 2004 has been entered.

Response to Amendment

2. This action is responsive to the Amendment filed on 22 November 2004. Claims 1-13 have been amended and new claims 17-24 have been added. Claims 14-16 are cancelled. Claims 1-13 and 17-24 are pending in the application.

Response to Arguments

3. Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 1-4, 6, 8-10, 12, and 13 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

4. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

5. Claims 1, 3, and 8-10 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by U.S. Patent Application Publication No. 2002/0159677 to Hsu et al.

Referring to claims 1, 3, and 8-10, the Hsu et al. reference discloses all the limitations of the claimed invention. The Hsu et al. reference discloses a micro-optical device having an aligned waveguide switch, including: a semiconductor substrate (517); a stationary input part (516) arranged on the semiconductor substrate, the stationary input part having a plurality of channel, and each channel being a input waveguide (512,513); a stationary output part arranged on the semiconductor substrate, the stationary output part (516) having a plurality of channels, and each channel being an output waveguide (514,515); a movable part (511) movably arranged on the semiconductor substrate, the movable part having a plurality of channels, and each channel being a switching waveguide (533-536), the moving part being movable relative to the stationary input and output part; and at least one stop block that limits movement of the movable part to align at least one of the switching waveguides with at least one of the input waveguides and at least one of the output waveguides, wherein movement of the movable part is substantially transverse. See Fig. 11 along with its respective portions of the specification.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

6. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

7. This application currently names joint inventors. In considering patentability of the claims under 35 U.S.C. 103(a), the examiner presumes that the subject matter of the various claims was commonly owned at the time any inventions covered therein were made absent any evidence to the contrary. Applicant is advised of the obligation under 37 CFR 1.56 to point out the inventor and invention dates of each claim that was not commonly owned at the time a later invention was made in order for the examiner to consider the applicability of 35 U.S.C. 103(c) and potential 35 U.S.C. 102(e), (f) or (g) prior art under 35 U.S.C. 103(a).

8. Claims 2, 4, 6, 12 and 13 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over U.S. Patent Application Publication No. 2002/0159677 to Hsu et al.

Referring to claims 2, 12, and 13, the Hsu et al. reference discloses all the limitations of the claimed invention, except the Hsu et al. reference does not appear to specifically disclose that the stationary input part, the stationary output part and the movable part comprise a single-crystal-silicon layer. Since the applicant has not disclosed that the how the single-crystal-silicon layer is essential to the invention, it would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to use a single-crystal-silicon to form the parts, since it has been held to be within the general skill of a worker in the art to select a known material on the basis of its suitability for the intended use. In re Leshin, 125 USPQ 416.

Referring to claims 4 and 6, the Hsu et al. reference all the limitations of the claimed invention, except the Hsu et al. reference does not appear to specifically disclose that the stop blocks comprises a polysilicon. Since the applicant has not disclosed that the how the polysilicon is essential to the invention, it would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to use polysilicon layers to form the stop blocks, since it has been held to be within the general skill of a worker in the art to select a known material on the basis of its suitability for the intended use. In re Leshin, 125 USPQ 416.

Allowable Subject Matter

9. Claims 5, 7, 11, and 17-24 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.
